

MAY 21, 2009 MGCC MEETING

The Middle Georgia Camera Club meeting was held on May 21, 2009 at Northminster Presbyterian Church at 7:30pm with President Diana Sullivan presiding.

Guests Cara and Adam Owenby were welcomed.
New member Joe Hancock was recognized.

Rick Freeburg, field trip coordinator, reminded the members of the field trip on June 20 to Providence Canyon State Park, Georgia's "Little Grand Canyon." There is a rim trail and also trails into the canyon. Google "Georgia State Parks" for more information. Bring water and a picnic lunch. Rick will e-mail further information about a car pool later.

Binks Solomon has sent an e-mail about the KEH Used Camera Buying Event scheduled for May 29-30 in Smyrna, GA.

From June 6 through August 23, the High Museum in Atlanta has a large scale color photo exhibit.

The Georgia Music Hall of Fame has a black and white photo exhibit "Nashville Portraits" through July 5th.

The MGCC t-shirts should be ready next month.

Judy Fouse, Treasurer, announced that the MGCC domain fee has been paid.

Alan Thiese suggested that if any member is looking for a PJ photo opportunity, the Gaudet Baseball Camp will be June 5th.

The GA National Fair photography contest brochures will be available soon at the GNF web site, GA Living Program. Alan reminded members that only 1 entry per class per person is allowed this year.

William Haun, PSA Digital Representative, announced that the 1st cycle images have reached the judge. He is awaiting the results.

Diane Flynn, 1st VP, presented the program including the individual theme assignments and food assignment. The images taken on the Sprewell Bluff State Park field trip will be shown at a later date.

Diane also presented several ideas for the members to consider for future Club programs relating to the upcoming GA National Fair photo competition.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:30pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandra Brown
